MISSION STATEMENT

Temple Beth Torah is a congregation that embraces the philosophy and values of Judaism in the following ways:

Spiritually, by celebrating the richness and traditions of Torah, prayer, holidays and life cycle events;

Educationally, by encouraging learning, increasing Jewish knowledge and enriching understanding for children, teenagers and adults;

Compassionately, by caring for our members and others in the Jewish community in times of need while also fostering positive relationships with our non-Jewish neighbors.

Temple Beth Torah embraces the spirit of inclusion for Jewish individuals and families who represent a variety of backgrounds and family compositions.

President's Message

WE DID IT!

TWO NEW A/C – HEATING UNITS ARE ON THE WAY!

Thanks to YOUR generosity, dedication and kindness, installation is scheduled for Temple Beth Torah's (2) new HVAC systems. Our members truly stepped up and gave from their hearts in tremendous ways. A mixture of very generous donations and some more modest ones showed how teamwork saves the day! We were fortunate that this event happened during one of our more temperate months, and we did not have to alter our schedule of events. As warmer days approach, we are prepared with the confidence that we will be providing appropriate comfort for everyone who walks through our doors. THANK YOU to everyone who has made this possible and showed we can count on our community in times of need. Anyone who would like to work on how we can set aside more funds for future needs, please contact me or our Vice President, Hy Penn, to have a private conversation.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

WISE WORDS CAN WAIT

The month of Adar is a good time to remember the importance of women's voices. In Adar, we celebrate Purim, the popular holiday filled with costumes and parties and fun. The story we retell, of course, is about a scary time of hatred that almost resulted in the destruction of our people. The hero – or heroine in this case – is Queen Esther, and the Megillah that is read on Purim is the Book of Esther. Esther is one of two women in the entire Tanakh (Hebrew Bible) who have a book named after her. The other is Ruth, which we read on Shavuot, the holiday that commemorates receiving the Ten Commandments.

Esther displays her wisdom, with the help of her cousin Mordecai, by speaking up for the Jewish people at just the right time. Haman's plot to murder the Jewish began with his hatred for one Jew, Mordecai. By refusing to bow down to Haman, Mordecai insisted that his loyalty was for the Almighty One rather than a human being. This caused Haman to use his political influence over the King of Persia to declare a death sentence on all the Jews.

Hatred toward an entire people because of a disagreement with one member of the group is an obvious flaw in Haman. As we know from the Megillah, it backfired on him, and he suffered the same fate that he intended for Mordecai and the other Jews. Had it not been for Esther's courage, Haman's plan may have succeeded.

Esther was in the King's palace while all these plans were forming. She needed to calculate very carefully the right time to speak up. Knowing her husband, the King, Esther knew that if she spoke at the wrong time, he would not listen to her. She held her silence until it would be most effective.

A very simple but important teaching comes from Ecclesiastes, 3:8: "There is a time for everything; a time for every experience under Heaven..." Toward the end of this informative list, verse 7 states, "A time for ripping and a time for sewing; a time for silence and a time for speaking." It's interesting that these actions are paired with each other. We know that the wrong words at the wrong time – or even the right words at the wrong time – can tear things apart. The right words at the right time can provide comfort and even repair what's been torn. And sometimes, silence is just what is needed.

I have never been accused of being a man of few words. But I have learned that silent presence -- being attentive, listening and completely available – is often more valuable than any words. The magic comes when we learn at just the right time.

L'shalom,

Rabbi Dan Gordon

Religious School Corner

What an exciting month of February we had at TBT. Our ISJL Fellow, Rena Lubin, led students to explore the Jewish meaning of MLK Day with activities on inner strength to why Jews marched with Martin Luther King Jr. Shari Ellsworth organized a fun and enlightening Student-Led Shabbat service. Each student, from the youngest to those in Confirmation class led prayers, songs and told what Shabbat meant to them. We celebrated Havdalah in the Park with singer/songwriter/guitarist Bruce Pollard and Rabbi Dan. The weather was perfect and all that attended had a great time taking a nature walk, eating kosher hot dogs, making s'mores, celebrating Havdalah and just visiting.

March brings us to Purim. Our students fulfilled a Purim mitzvah by creating nutrition snack bags for children who live in the Humble, Kingwood, Atascocita area. The students put together over 60 bags for Humble Area Assistance Ministries (HAAM). Susan Pollard organized this mitzvah project and will deliver our contributions to HAAM. Thank you to Susan for organizing this and to all the students, members, and friends of TBT who donated items. We had a mountain of granola bars, raisins, oatmeal packs, snack crackers, fruit snacks, and chip bags!

Next month Passover!!

Torah Portions for March 2020

Summarized by Rabbi Dan Gordon

March 6-7, 2020      Tetzaveh Exodus 27:20-30:10

This Torah portion describes the elaborate procedure involved in ordaining the priestly family, Aaron's descendants, who will be known as "Kohanim." Their clothes and their lives distinguish them as servants of both G-d and the people. They must take their roles extremely seriously, as they represent their sacred rituals will represent the Israelites to G-d. The portion begins with instructions for the "ner tamid" or Eternal Light, that reminds both of G-d's everlasting presence and our eternal relationship and devotion.

March 13-14, 2020      Ki Tissa Exodus 30:11-34:35

This is one of the most dramatic Torah portions, which includes the Israelites losing faith and building a Golden Calf to worship. Moses pleads with G-d to show mercy, and then his own anger causes him to break the tablets. Those who are not willing to come back to the LORD are killed. But the Torah portion includes reconciliation, as G-d instructs Moses to construct a new set of tablets "like the first." The first set were written by G-d; the second by Moses, empowering a human, and in turn, humanity, to maintain the commitment and the covenant.

March 20-21, 2020      Vayakhel/Pekude Exodus 35:1-40:38

This double portion brings us to the end of Exodus. Vayakhel describes the specifics of the wood and other items required in building the tabernacle. But it begins with a reprise of the commandment to rest on Shabbat. This teaches us that, even a highly important task like the tabernacle is not more important than our weekly day devoted to rest and rejuvenation.

"Pekude" means "records" and refers to the accounting of the gold, silver, copper and yarn that were used to make the Tabernacle. In this last portion of Exodus, the presence of the Lord fills the Tabernacle. Traditional rabbinic commentators have compared the building of the Tabernacle to the creation of the world itself.

March 27-28, 2020      Vayikrah Leviticus 1:1-5:26

"Vayikrah" is both the name of the book, which in English is translated as Leviticus, and the name of our Torah portion. While the book contains sacrificial practices, which are completely out of date, the issue of the proper form of atonement for modern Jews is a contemporary one. According to some rabbinic commentators, prayer has replaced sacrifice for the modern Jew. The description of what constitutes sin in Leviticus demonstrates the ethical principles of our tradition. In Judaism, each individual must take responsibility for making amends to God: no person can sacrifice her or his life for another's.

DONATIONS

Making a donation to TBT is a perfect way to honor a joyous occasion, like a birthday, anniversary, wedding/engagement, new home, job change, or retirement. It is also appropriate to honor someone who has passed away with a donation in his/her memory at the time of the passing or on the yahrzeit (anniversary) of the passing. All donations to Temple Beth Torah are tax deductible. You can choose where you would like your donation to be applied.

GENERAL FUND

Any donation that is not specified to another specific fund goes to the General Fund, which helps maintain the operating budget of the temple. Building expenses, insurance, staff salaries and all program expenses that are not underwritten come out of the General Fund, as well as support for the Religious School.

RABBI'S DISCRETIONARY FUND

This separate tzedakah fund enables the rabbi to make confidential contributions to help individuals and causes that may be in crisis. The rabbi may also use this fund to help support unbudgeted programs that will benefit the temple or community.

BURT LEVY MEMORIAL LIBRARY FUND

This fund maintains the library and helps purchase new books. Our library, located in the back of the sanctuary, is named after TBT's founding president, Burt Levy, who was a major inspiration in starting Temple Beth Torah.

TRACY TOBIN JOHNSON MEMORIAL EDUCATION FUND

This fund provides scholarships to Jewish summer camps for children and for educational conferences for teachers. It also helps support special educational programs that are not in the general budget. The fund honors Tracy Tobin Johnson, who was an active TBT member, volunteer and teacher before passing away at a young age.

TOM THERIOT MEMORIAL PROGRAM FUND

This fund supports special dynamic programs, often related to the arts. It is named after Tom Theriot, a lover of the arts, who was a constant presence at TBT and supported every cause.
