MISSION STATEMENT

Temple Beth Torah is a congregation that embraces the philosophy and values of Judaism in the following ways:

Spiritually, by celebrating the richness and traditions of Torah, prayer, holidays and life cycle events;

Educationally, by encouraging learning, increasing Jewish knowledge and enriching understanding for children, teenagers and adults;

Compassionately, by caring for our members and others in the Jewish community in times of need while also fostering positive relationships with our non-Jewish neighbors.

Temple Beth Torah embraces the spirit of inclusion for Jewish individuals and families who represent a variety of backgrounds and family compositions.

President's Message

I hope you had a wonderful Hanukkah and a Happy New Year. A New Year is upon us and even more.... a NEW DECADE is upon us, so I would also like to say Happy New Decade.

For this upcoming TBT year of 2020 as your new president, I would like to let you know what I have planned. I hope to have at least two fundraising events for TBT. One near the last day of Sunday School in May and one in December. I hope that everyone will be able to contribute in a small way to these fundraisers and I am looking for volunteers to build a large fundraising committee. Please email, call, or text me if you are interested in being part of this fundraising committee.

Temple Beth Torah was built — and continues to thrive — on the strength of volunteers. It is the spirit of volunteerism that enables all members to feel an ownership for our community. Teamwork makes it happen. Rather than one volunteer trying to run an entire aspect of the temple, members can help members. Individual talents and energy will help us reach our full potential. We are looking for committee members to help in Fundraising, Security, Onegs, Building Maintenance, Billing Solutions, Treasurer Support, Social, Ritual, Sisterhood, Men's Club, Passover Planning, and Thank you Gifts.

Please let me know if you would like to be on one or some of these committees. Thank you for your support.

Jeremy Blumin

CAMPFIRE STORIES WITH RABBI DAN IN HUMBLE JESSE JONES PARK AND NATURE CENTER

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11 5:30 PM

Long before he came to Temple Beth Torah, Rabbi Dan Gordon was known by his alter-ego, Dante, the Teller of Tales. The Jesse Jones Park and Nature Center has asked Rabbi Dan to re-create this character with a special presentation of his program entitled "Adventures in Storyland." The park is partnering with Young Audiences of Houston www.yahouston.org to bring this event, which is open to the community.

There is no charge for the program, but reservations are required, and space is limited. You can reserve a space any time after January 2 by calling (281) 446-8588. This is not a TBT Program, so please make your reservation directly to the park.

The Jesse Jones Park and Nature Center is located at 20634 Kenswick Drive, Humble, TX 77338

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Listening, Hearing and Moving Forward

Shammai said: Make a fixed time for learning your Torah.

Say little and do much and receive everyone with a cheerful face. Pirke Avot 1:15

Embracing the beginning of a new year and a new decade gives us the opportunity to examine those areas in which we, as individuals and as a community, can improve. It's no secret that wide gaps in opinions have led to uncomfortable divisiveness. When people or groups become so focused on their personal viewpoint, they can come to believe that their own perception is the absolute truth and anyone who disagrees is either foolish or lying. A popular story from the Talmud illustrates how passionately opinionated disagreements can create unfortunately deep chasms.

A group of rabbis were discussing whether a certain clay pot was kosher. The recognized expert in this matter was Rabbi Eliezer, who offered his ruling. Rabbi Joshua, however, disagreed, and three fellow rabbis sided with Rabbi Joshua. Rabbi Eliezer sought to prove his point by making magical predictions that came true, including causing a tree to uproot on its own and a stream to change directions. Each time, Rabbi Joshua refused to accept these tricks as proving the truth, until a voice from Heaven intervened to endorse Rabbi Eliezer's expertise. Rabbi Joshua did not even accept the Heavenly voice, but justified his viewpoint by quoting from Torah: "...This instruction is not beyond your reach...It is not in the heavens...but close to you, in your mouth and in your heart..." (Deuteronomy 30:11-14)

By the time they were finished, the clay pot had been forgotten. Truth was no longer an issue, only who could win the argument and which techniques were most effective. Eliezer used irrelevant magic tricks to demonstrate his power. Joshua quoted Torah out of context and used his "gang" of other rabbis to suggest that a majority opinion can establish and even overrule the truth. By ignoring the real issue, these rabbis revealed that even respected leaders, when they let their egos take over, can childishly make a mess of things. The result of this disagreement? Hurt feelings, humiliation, loss of respect and the end of civil discourse among these rabbis.

Hundreds of years later, we can make the same mistakes. We can put ourselves and others into labeled categories, cheering everything on one side of the coin and vilifying everything on the other side. Or we can listen to each other. We can disagree respectfully without interrupting and interjecting our views before someone else is finished speaking. We can look at people as complete, thinking individuals whose thoughts are not defined by a label. We can humbly acknowledge to ourselves that we don't know everything about everything. As Shammai suggested, we can learn regularly, saying little, doing much, and just as importantly, receive all others with a smile.

Our most sacred teaching: Shema Yisrael Adonai Eloheinu Adonai Echad. Listen, Israel. The Eternal is our God; the Eternal is One. It begins with "listen." It ends with "one." Our unity as a people requires listening with an open mind and an open heart. Let's give it a try this year. Our future is at stake. Happy New Year, and let's enjoy the 2020's together...as one!

L'shalom,

L'shalom,

Rabbi Dan Gordon

DONATIONS

Making a donation to TBT is a perfect way to honor a joyous occasion, like a birthday, anniversary, wedding/engagement, new home, job change, or retirement. It is also appropriate to honor someone who has passed away with a donation in his/her memory at the time of the passing or on the yahrzeit (anniversary) of the passing. All donations to Temple Beth Torah are tax deductible. You can choose where you would like your donation to be applied.

GENERAL FUND

Any donation that is not specified to another specific fund goes to the General Fund, which helps maintain the operating budget of the temple. Building expenses, insurance, staff salaries and all program expenses that are not underwritten come out of the General Fund, as well as support for the Religious School.

RABBI'S DISCRETIONARY FUND

This separate tzedakah fund enables the rabbi to make confidential contributions to help individuals and causes that may be in crisis. The rabbi may also use this fund to help support unbudgeted programs that will benefit the temple or community.

BURT LEVY MEMORIAL LIBRARY FUND

This fund maintains the library and helps purchase new books. Our library, located in the back of the sanctuary, is named after TBT's founding president, Burt Levy, who was a major inspiration in starting Temple Beth Torah.

TRACY TOBIN JOHNSON MEMORIAL EDUCATION FUND

This fund provides scholarships to Jewish summer camps for children and for educational conferences for teachers. It also helps support special educational programs that are not in the general budget. The fund honors Tracy Tobin Johnson, who was an active TBT member, volunteer and teacher before passing away at a young age.

TOM THERIOT MEMORIAL PROGRAM FUND

This fund supports special dynamic programs, often related to the arts. It is named after Tom Theriot, a lover of the arts, who was a constant presence at TBT and supported every cause.

DONATIONS NOW AVAILABLE ONLINE

You can now make donations online for any fund donation. Now there is an easy way to honor the memory of loved ones or acknowledge a joyous occasion by giving tzedakah. Tell your friends and family to visit our website, www.tbthumble.org, to make use of this mitzvah. Or SEE THE DONATIONS FORM ON PG 12

Torah Portions for January 2020

Summarized by Rabbi Dan Gordon

January 3-4, 2020 Vayigash, Genesis 44:18-47:27

After a stolen goblet is found in Benjamin's bag, Judah asks that he be held prisoner in his brother's place. Joseph cannot hide his identity anymore, and has a tearful reunion with his brothers. He invites the whole family to move to Egypt, where he has achieved power. On the journey to Egypt, God speaks to Jacob in a vision. He solidifies that Jacob will now be known as "Israel," and promises to be with his people in Egypt and to eventually bring them home. The entire tribe migrates to Egypt, where they are permitted to live peacefully.

January 10-11, 2020 Va-Y'chi, Genesis 47:28-50:26

Jacob, at 147 years old, blesses his grandchildren, Ephraim and Menasseh, blessing the younger before the elder, despite Joseph's objection that the elder should come first. The blessing for Ephraim and Menasseh becomes part of a modern custom to bless sons (daughters are blessed in the spirit of Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah). Jacob makes Joseph promise to have him buried with his forefathers in Canaan. Jacob calls all his sons to him, and tells each what he thinks of them – mostly critical. After his death, Jacob's sons are fearful Joseph will want vengeance for their previous actions, but he assures them his forgiveness was sincere. The sons take Jacob to Canaan for burial and then returned to Egypt. Joseph dies at 110 years old, after reconciling with his brothers again. His bones will be saved and brought back to the Holy Land when Moses leads the Israelites back home.

January 17-18, 2020 Shemot Exodus 1:1-6:1

The sons of Israel and their families have settled in Egypt, but a new king arises who did not honor the relationship Joseph had established. Because of Pharaoh's fear of a revolt, male Hebrew babies are ordered to be killed. With the help of conspiring midwives, Shifra and Puah, Moses' mother saves him by putting him in a basket where he is later found by Pharaoh's daughter and adopted. Moses kills an Egyptian taskmaster and flees to Midian. He marries, and while watching his father-in-law's sheep, G-d appears to Moses out of a burning bush that is not consumed. G-d reveals His plan to free the Israelites, and sends Moses and his brother Aaron to speak to Pharaoh about freeing the Hebrew slaves.

January 24-25, 2020 Va-eira Exodus 6:2-9:35

G-d reveals His sacred name to Moses, and tells him that he is the first one to know it. G-d assures Moses that He will be with him as he negotiates with Pharaoh. The plagues begin: blood, frogs, vermin, locusts, cattle disease, boils and hail; but each time, Pharaoh's heart is hard, and he does not free the Hebrew slaves.

January Yahrzeits

The following names will be read each week during January to acknowledge those who have passed away who were connected with our community. If there are mistakes or omissions, please e-mail the temple at admin@tbthumble.org or leave a message at 281-446-5611.

KROGER card to support TBT

Kroger has recently upgraded their Community Rewards system and as a result TBT has a new account number- VE980. Please use this new number when linking your Kroger card to TBT so we can receive a percentage of your Kroger purchases. It's an easy way to help TBT earn some money. While the previous number will continue to be associated with our organization, it will not be visible to members when enrolling. New members can enroll by searching for either VE980 or Temple Beth Torah. If you are a Kroger shopper, please link your Kroger card to TBT at no cost to you.

January 31-February 1, 2020 Bo Exodus 10:1-13:16

The plagues continue with Pharaoh's lack of response predictable, as G-d reveals to Moses, "I am hardening Pharaoh's heart in order to increase My wonders - so you will tell your children and grandchildren how I toyed with Egypt, and the wonders I put in them. And they shall know that I am God." (Exodus 10:1-2) For years, scholars and commentators wonder why ten plagues were necessary. The Torah suggests that the plagues had to be memorable enough for us to continue to retell the story. The Israelites receive the instructions to place blood above our doorposts as a sign for the angel of death to "pass over" our homes, and we receive the laws about how to remember Pesach in the future.
