Yom Kippur Afternoon Discussion Shema, Y'all! The Art of Compassionate Listening Following the Yom Kippur Morning Service Approximately 1-2 PM Facilitated by Rev. Dr. Amber Mattingly

During the break between the morning and afternoon Yom Kippur services, those who wish to stay will be treated to a special program that can provide the perfect blend to our High Holiday worship. This is Amber Mattingly’s description of the program:

Our faith communities, our planet, and all living beings in our world are in desperate need of healing. One way for us to enter the healing process is to practice the skill of Compassionate Listening. In this gathering, we will share stories and discern new ways of being/doing that promote both the flourishing of ourselves and each other.

A Kingwood resident, Amber is an ordained minister who, in 2020, completed a doctoral program from Claremont School of Theology, majoring in “compassion.” She incorporates yoga in her ministry, and her doctoral dissertation focused on “Seeing and Hearing the Outsider.” She describes her work as “creating safer spaces for people from any or no religious background to engage in spiritual conversation.” A passionate learner of multi-faith traditions, Amber recently co-authored a book entitled, A Leap of (Inter)Faith: Finding Treasures in Shared Practice.

As Judaism’s most sacred teaching is Shema Yisrael (HEAR O Israel) focuses on the importance of listening, this will be a wonderful way to begin a year with a renewed connection to hearing the many voices within our community, our world and ourselves.

Amber and her husband, Dr. Rev. Chad Mattingly, senior minister of Kingwood Christian Church, have two teenage children. Please join us for an engaging program about a topic that affects us all.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

The First of the Rest

When the final blast of the shofar makes its seemingly endless chord at the end of Yom Kippur, it is time to break our fast and move into the New Year. Philosophically, we began a ten-day period that started on Rosh Hashana. A New Year's celebration includes toasting the sweetness of beginnings with apples and honey, and a day filled with countless prayers to the Holy One asking to be inscribed in the metaphorical "Book of Life." Then we have ten days to reflect on the previous year in preparation for the confessionals of Yom Kippur. The full day of prayer and fasting on Yom Kippur can be both invigorating and exhausting, as we bring an entire year into our focus. No matter how good or bad the previous year was (and like all years, it was probably both!), we pray that next year will be better. And if not, we pray we will be able to deal with whatever comes our way with strength of faith.

We may think of that final shofar blast as an ending; and it is in some ways. It is the end of Highest of Holy Days, and we hope we have made them meaningful and inspiring. And yet, we can also think of it as a call to begin. Begin the New Year with the spirit we brought to these important days.

On Rosh Hashana, the sound of the shofar is broken up into many different sounds. Some scholars have proposed that the brokenness of the shofar sounds represents the disjointed aspects of our lives. From a hundred long, short, and staccato notes, we come together at the end of Yom Kippur to hear one long sound. Some think of this as a coming together, combining the broken pieces as we try to make our lives whole.

I suggest that the real impact of the High Holy Days does not happen during Rosh Hashana, Yom Kippur, OR the days in between. The Book of Life starts when we leave our worship space and move into the year. However we prayed, however we behaved, whatever we hoped for, will all come to life. While Rosh Hashana is the first day of the year, the day after Yom Kippur is the first day of the rest of the year. Let us continue to hear the sound of the shofar each day, working toward complete wholeness for our souls and for our community. Let these days of awareness inspire us to a growing awareness of how to be blessings for those around us. And may this inspiration lead us to next year's review, excited about how we've grown, with a realization of how far we have to go.

Our sages teach about the importance of the days between Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur. Let's also remember the importance of the days between Yom Kippur and Rosh Hashana.

Rabbi Dan Gordon

Join Temple Beth Torah as we Break our Fast
Wednesday, October 5

Everyone is invited to a community "pot-luck" break-the-fast meal following the Yom Kippur service and Havdallah. There will be a wonderful spread of delicious foods from which to choose. If you have not signed up to bring something, you may still do so at Kol Nidre or the morning of Yom Kippur.

We always need volunteers to help set up, serve, and clean up. Everyone's help will be greatly appreciated.

Tashlich/Shabbat
Friday, September 30, 7:00 PM
In Person and Virtual

On Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, there is much emphasis on transgressions from the previous year and our resolve to do better in the next year. In the Middle Ages, a custom began to ceremonially “cast away” anything from the previous year that may be holding us back from being our best selves and our best community. (Tashlich is Hebrew for “cast away”) The custom was inspired by a verse from the prophet Micah that says:

*God will take us back in love;
God will cover up our iniquities,
You [God] will hurl all our sins
Into the depths of the sea. (Micah 7:19)*

The ceremony often takes place near a flowing body of water, usually between Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, and people toss breadcrumbs into the water to represent sins that flow far away from our physical being. While we will not be together near flowing water at Temple Beth Torah, the Shabbat service between Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur will incorporate creative elements of a Tashlich ceremony as we prepare for our next Holy Days.

Friday, October 28
Virtual Only – A Celebration of Music
Welcome Back Rabbi Yakira and the
Yedidyah Family Band

Main Shabbat Service – 7:00 PM

A TBT favorite is coming back to your screens! Rabbi Yakira and the Yedidyah Family Band will enhance our Shabbat with their spirited musical Shabbat. Blending traditional melodies with original compositions, these singers and musicians bring a lively and soulful flavor to Shabbat. Zoom link is the same as every Shabbat service.

Pizza in the Hut
Friday, October 14, 6:30 PM

The High Holiday spirit doesn't end with Yom Kippur! On Friday, October 14, please join us for “Pizza in the Hut!” at 6:30 p.m. Come celebrate Sukkot by decorating the Sukkah, shaking the lulav, and having a little Pizza “in the hut”! There is no charge, but donations are welcome. On Sukkot, everyone's invited, including mystical guests known as “Ushpizin.” Traditionally, we invite our biblical ancestors to share Sukkot with us, but Ushpizin can also be anyone. Think about mystical guests from the past who you wish we could celebrate with. Shabbat services will begin at 7:00 pm. The service will be in person and virtual.

Owen Brawn's Bar Mitzvah
October 22, 10:00 AM

Join us at Temple Beth Torah
for a very special and joyous occasion
on October 22
at 10 AM
as Owen William Brawn
is called to the Torah
as a Bar Mitzvah

Condolences to the Klager Family

The TBT congregation is sad to announce that Dennis Klager passed away last week. He and his wife, Ellen, have been TBT members for decades. They have been very supportive of our Jewish community through the years, and highly respected role models.

Dennis was a dearly loved husband, father (to Curtis and Morgan) father-in-law (to Aime and Ethan) and grandfather (to Fenix, Ursula, Molly, Everett and Abigail). He was a loyal, supportive, honest, caring man who will be very missed by all.

Celebrate Simchat Torah in Folk/Country Style!
Joe Buchanan brings Americana with a Jewish Soul back to TBT
In Person and Virtual
October 21, 7 PM

On Friday, October 21, Joe Buchanan returns to Temple Beth Torah to help us celebrate the most festive of Jewish holidays. He brings with him his unique style of music that includes a little country, a little bluegrass and a lot of Jewish soul! Rabbi Dan and Joe have shared their musical storying together at TBT several times in the past, always with exciting results. Dance and clap and tap your toes as we celebrate the circular year of learning, from Genesis to Deuteronomy and back!

Mr. Buchanan's participation is generously underwritten by the Brawn family in honor of Owen's bar mitzvah the next morning.

Kulanu: Synagogues in Action Against Antisemitism

The Anti-Defamation League Names Temple Beth Torah as New Partner

Kulanu, Hebrew for "all of us," is an eight-month program, running from October 2022 to June 2023, dedicated to empowering congregations to address antisemitism and hate in their communities through education, community engagement, and advocacy. We are excited to announce that TBT has been accepted to participate. During the program, we will join a network of congregations to build bridges of understanding across communities. ADL will provide resources to develop and implement engaging and impactful programming through our exclusive Kulanu initiative inspiration library, interactive webinars with ADL experts, and guidance from ADL professionals.

If you would like to be part of TBT's planning team, please contact our coordinator, Hy Penn, directly or by sending a message to admin@tbthumble.org.

Watch for updates in upcoming newsletters.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Although Yom Kippur is the time for asking and giving forgiveness, I also feel that it is a time to remember gratitude. As we slowly heal from the events of the last two years, it is easy to focus on our struggles. However, if we try to focus more on being grateful, our whole perspective may change. Not only can being grateful make us happier, the change of mind set can also help us improve our perspective on all things. I have been too focused on what others have than being thankful for the things that I have. I am going to take this opportunity to practice gratitude on a daily basis and turn to helping others. Forgiving and gratitude can help create a kinder life and hopefully be a trend that will spread throughout our community and beyond. Be grateful for a kinder and happier life. Reach out and support each other's health and happiness.

Shari Ellsworth
TBT President

Torah Portions for October 2022

Summarized by Rabbi Dan Gordon

Sept. 30-October 1, Va-Yelech Deuteronomy 31:1-30

In Vayelech Moses announces to the Israelites that at one hundred and twenty years old, he is no longer active. He publicly transfers his authority to Joshua and empowers the Levites to bring the Teachings of the Torah into the Ark of Covenant. Moses warns the Israelites to remember all of G-d's commandments by re-reading the teachings even after his own death.

October 7-8, 2022, Ha'Azinu Deuteronomy 32:1-52

Moses, nearing the end of his life, uses poetry and song to recount the journey in the desert. At the conclusion of the song, G-d instructs Moses to climb to the top of Mount Nebo, overlooking the Jordan River. This is where Moses will die, able to see the Promised Land, but not enter it. G-d explains this is because Moses broke faith with Him when he struck the rock. Moses is 120 years old.

Oct. 14-15, Sukkot Torah Reading, Exodus 33:12-34:26

The Torah reading on Shabbat during the intermediate day of Sukkot includes the dramatic story in which Israelites form a Golden Calf when Moses is taking a long time to return from Mount Sinai. Despite this action, G-d instructs Moses to construct a new set of tablets, since he smashed the first set. According to Torah, while G-d wrote the first set of tablets, Moses must make the second set himself. On Sukkot, shortly after we have experienced Yom Kippur, it is a good lesson of second chances, and taking responsibility for our actions. Moses behaved in an angry manner when he smashed the tablets and took responsibility by making the second set.

October 21-22, 2022 Bereshit, Genesis 1:1-6:8

For our Simchat Torah celebration, we repeat the last lines of Deuteronomy and begin immediately with the first passages in Genesis. Torah is a never-ending learning process, so as soon as we finish, we begin again, searching for new insights. The end of Deuteronomy includes the final blessings that Moses bestows upon the Children of Israel, detailing the end of his life and the transition to new leadership for the new land. The opening chapters of Torah outline G-d's creation of the world day-by-day and move into the struggles of the human family. These passages include commonly known stories; Adam and Eve eating the forbidden fruit, Cain's murder of his brother, Abel and the Tower of Babel, leading up to the time of Noah. Simchat Torah, coming at the end of Sukkot, highlights the transition from one journey to the next.

October 28-29, 2022, Noah, Genesis 6:9-11:32

Noah's story is also about new beginnings. Noah, having been "righteous in his day" gains G-d's trust, and his family becomes the sole survivors of the Great Flood. The evil world is washed away, and Noah and his family gave the opportunity to rebuild and repopulate. G-d makes everlasting promises to mankind. The rainbow tells us that G-d will never again destroy the world, and Noah's line will lead us to Abraham, with whom G-d will connect the eternal covenants.

Temple Beth Torah Donate a Brick Campaign

TBT member Will Pollard has built a brick path in front of our Sukkah as part of his Eagle Scout project. We are now giving everyone an opportunity to donate an engraved brick for the path with all donations going to support Temple Beth Torah!

This is a wonderful way to remember a loved one or honor a friend/family member. You can also use it to commemorate an occasion, like a bar/bat mitzvah, a wedding, an anniversary or a memorable birthday.

Each brick can be inscribed with 3 lines and 20 characters per line (letters, numbers, spaces, punctuation and other keyboard symbols are considered characters).

Various approved clip art designs can be made available for an additional $20 donation per brick. If clip art is used, the text is limited to 15 characters per line.

Brick donations are:

1 Brick= $100

2 Bricks= $180 @ $90/each

3 Bricks= $240 @ $80/each

4 Bricks= $280 @ $70/each

5 Bricks= $300 @ $60/each

6 or more Bricks= $50 a brick

Please send your check with the engraving information to TBT:
