RABBI'S MESSAGE

23 Prayers for the New Year, 2023

For those of us born more than 23 years ago, it seems daunting that we are so deep into a new century. 23 is known as a “prime number,” because of its unique characteristic of not being divisible by any other number other than 1. 23 is the ninth prime number, and there are 25 primes in the first 100 numbers of counting. Why is this important? I’m not sure! But as we welcome a New Year as a “prime” year, perhaps we can find unique ways to make it special. With that in mind, I offer 23 prayers, rather than resolutions. Resolutions are individual. Prayers often rely on help from divine as well as human resources. This is my list for the New Year...want to think about yours?

Dear God: *With Your Divine help, and added wisdom from those around me, I pray:

1. To be able to recognize my strengths and use them wisely;
2. To understand my limitations and work within them;
3. To truly listen to what the world is teaching;
4. To truly listen to the hearts of those in need;
5. To be truly heard when I speak from my own heart;
6. To understand and utilize the power and importance of silence;
7. To learn something new each day, and to recognize learning from unexpected sources;
8. For those who struggle with illness, addictions and disabilities to find healthy paths to living full lives;
9. For those who struggle with issues of identity to find the Divine Self within;
10. For those with economic struggles to be able to find needed resources;
11. To appreciate the many blessings, both obvious ones and hidden ones;
12. To see difficult challenges as opportunities for growth;
13. To exercise my mind, body and spirit regularly to keep each healthy and challenged;
14. To rest and rejuvenate regularly;
15. To be patient with those I hold dear, and be even more patient with those with whom I have been impatient;
16. To find new ways to honor elders so they can age with dignity and grace;
17. To find new ways to honor young people, so they can grow with safety and confidence;
18. To see mistakes – both my own and those of others – as opportunities to learn and grow;
19. To find the inner motivation that will help me to inspire others;

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

I hope everyone had a joyful and peaceful Hanukkah and New Year! I am thrilled to serve you as president for another year. I have so enjoyed meeting more members throughout this year especially during the high holidays. It has been a joy to meet family members who have also joined us for various events. Some of the things I look forward to this year are Bar and Bat Mitzvah's, Passover Seder, High Holidays and Sukkot. We should soon begin planning for our Seder and hope we have a large group celebrating together. I am hopeful that we will have more members participating in our committees and joining us for Shabbats and Oneg hosting. It has been a long process getting back from the struggles of the last few years, but I am encouraged that we are ready to congregate face to face more frequently. We have some exciting events coming up with our Religious Students and look forward to more social events for kids, families and congregants. May we all be blessed with a joyous and prosperous new year with much love and affection.

Sincerely,

Shari Ellsworth
TBT President

Rabbi's Message continued....

20. To listen to points of view that differ from my own, and respect that I don't have to try change someone's mind in order to be true to my own principles;
21. To give freely what I am able to give without expectations of reciprocation;
22. To embrace whatever mysteries the new year brings;
23. To express my gratitude and love often.

This list is only a beginning. As the new year continues, I hope to revisit my list and expand upon it. We all begin a new year with hopes, dreams, wishes and prayers. Let's journey together.

The Jewish Night of Why

Saturday, February 11

6:00 PM Potluck Dinner, followed by Havdallah and group discussion

Prior to Covid, "The Jewish Night of Why" was one of Temple Beth Torah's most popular annual events. It is simple, fun and engaging! The title of the evening is based on Alfred Kolatch's book series called, The Jewish Book of Why, which is a wonderful addition to every Jewish library. Kolatch's books give simple answers to hundreds of questions about Jewish ritual, holidays, practices, and customs with a technical scholarly perspective.

When TBT gathers, we discuss some of these questions, but also focus on many of the philosophical issues that are part of the Jewish world today as well as our own community. It is a personal way for us to learn from each other. Participants pose their questions anonymously, by placing written questions in a "hat." Rabbi Dan's philosophy is that there is often a variety of possible reasons why Jews do what Jews do! He will offer his perspective about what's on your mind, and others will be able to discuss other possibilities. In the classic Jewish way, we will learn from each other!

Prior to the discussion, we will share a "potluck" dinner. Please be mindful of TBT's Kosher Style – not mixing meat and dairy in the same dish and no pork or shellfish products.

Yom Limmud—A Jewish Day of Learning is Coming Soon!
Save the Date: Sunday, February 19, 2023

Please save the date for Yom Limmud 2023 on February 19, 2023. Sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Greater Houston, this in-person community event will take place at Congregation Beth Israel. The theme is “OUT OF THE BOX.” The Federation hopes you will join for some exciting and innovative new programming! More details including registration information will be coming soon to the Jewish Federation of Greater Houston’s website at <https://www.houstonjewish.org>.

Hineni Houston – Hearing Your Voice is Important!

Thank you to the approximately 20 people who participated in the Hineni Houston discussion held at Temple Beth Torah last month. Your voice was heard by the Jewish Federation of Greater Houston!

The Jewish Federation truly wants to hear from us and understand our needs so they can better serve Jews over the entire greater Houston community including our corner in the northeast suburbs.

If anyone wants to have a one on one conversation to relay more information to the Federation or if you know someone that wants to share their thoughts about our Jewish community, please contact Hy Penn directly or at admin@tbthumble.org. Hy will be available to conduct these interviews through the first week of January. Each interview takes under 1 hour to complete. Have your voice heard!

Kulanu: Synagogues in Action Against Antisemitism The Anti-Defamation League Names Temple Beth Torah as New Partner Join the Steering Committee Today

Kulanu, Hebrew for “all of us,” is dedicated to empowering congregations to address antisemitism and hate in their communities through education, community engagement, and advocacy. We are excited to announce that TBT has been accepted to participate. During the program, we will join a network of congregations to build bridges of understanding across communities. ADL will provide resources to develop and implement engaging and impactful programming through our exclusive Kulanu initiative inspiration library, interactive webinars with ADL experts, and guidance from ADL professionals.

If you would like to be part of TBT’s planning team, please contact Hy Penn directly or at admin@tbthumble.org. Our first planning meeting will be held soon.

Torah Portions for January 2022

Summarized by Rabbi Dan Gordon

January 6-7, 2023, Va-Y'chi, Genesis 47:28-50:26

Jacob, at 147 years old, blesses his grandchildren, Ephraim and Menasseh, blessing the younger before the elder. He makes Joseph promise to have him buried with his forefathers in Canaan. Jacob calls all his sons to him and tells each what he thinks of them. After his death, Jacob's sons take him to Canaan for burial and then returned to Egypt. Joseph dies at 110 years old, after reconciling with his brothers again. The Biblical family is at home in Egypt as Genesis ends.

January 13-14, 2023, Shemot Exodus 1:1-6:1

We begin the Book of Exodus with the sons of Israel (Jacob) and their families settled in Egypt. But a new king arises who does not honor the relationship Joseph had established. Because of Pharaoh's fear of a revolt, male Hebrew babies are ordered to be killed. With the help of conspiring midwives, Shifra and Puah, Moses' mother saves him by putting him in a basket where he is later found by Pharaoh's daughter and adopted. Moses kills an Egyptian taskmaster and flees to Midian. He marries, and while watching his father-in-law's sheep, G-d appears to Moses out of a burning bush that is not consumed. G-d reveals His plan to free the Israelites and sends Moses and his brother Aaron to speak to Pharaoh about freeing the Hebrew slaves.

January 20-21, 2023, Va-eira Exodus 6:2-9:35

G-d reveals His sacred name to Moses and tells him that he is the first one to know it. G-d assures Moses that He will be with him as he negotiates with Pharaoh. The plagues begin: blood, frogs, vermin, locusts, cattle disease, boils and hail; but each time, Pharaoh's heart is hard, and he does not free the Hebrew slaves.

January 27-28, 2023, Bo, Exodus 10:1-13:16

The plagues continue with Pharaoh's lack of response predictable, as G-d reveals to Moses, "I am hardening Pharaoh's heart in order to increase My wonders - so you will tell your children and grandchildren how I toyed with Egypt, and the wonders I put in them. And they shall know that I am God." (Exodus 10:1-2) For years, scholars and commentators wonder why ten plagues were necessary. The Torah suggests that the plagues had to be memorable enough for us to continue to retell the story. The Israelites receive instructions to place blood above our doorposts as a sign for the angel of death to "pass over" our homes, and the Torah reveals laws about how to remember Pesach/Passover in the future.
