Americana with a Jewish Soul
Country/Folk Singer Joe Buchanan
Enhances TBT Shabbat, April 19, 7:00 PM

The weekend of April 19-20 will be a special time at Temple Beth Torah. The Brawn family will be celebrating Caleb's bar mitzvah on Shabbat afternoon, so countless "Yankees" from Ohio and Pennsylvania will be descending upon our little Humble, Texas synagogue. What a great time to revive a taste of good old country and western style Jewish music! Popular Jewish singer/songwriter, Joe Buchanan, returns to TBT. Joe has been to our temple several times for concerts, Shabbat and Simcha Torah services. He has also been performing all over the country, as his unique style of worship touches the soul. If you haven't prayed with Joe before, get ready for a moving worship experience. Joe Buchanan's appearance at Temple Beth Torah is thanks to the kindness of the Braun family, sponsoring the Shabbat service in honor of Caleb's bar mitzvah on April 20.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

L'Dor Va'Dor: Creating Legacies

As we transition from March to April – and Adar to Nissan on the Hebrew calendar, Temple Beth Torah is experiencing a new surge of blending the past into the future. The Purim weekend, featuring the YedidYAH family band, was a dynamic experience for all who attended, either in person or on Zoom. It wasn't just listening to performers; it was intergenerational participation in prayer and in spirit. Elders and children, young adults and teens, a newborn baby and even a dog sang, danced, prayed, ate and spent time with each other. During the Saturday evening Havdalah song session, 11-year-old Lia Pilman partnered with California guest, 16-year-old Olivia Yedidia playing Olam Chesed Yibaneh (We Will Build this World with Love), as the two young girls played beautiful flute together. Bruce Pollard, who with his wife, Susan, has raised three adult children at TBT and often inspired our congregation over the years with his own music and creativity, led three participatory songs of his own. Lia represents the enthusiasm of our religious school students. Bruce leads another generation of adults by facilitating the weekly "Cup of Wisdom" group. Children and adults, from those kindergartners to people in their 70's, made their own drums with Italiano's metal cans and duct tape, and enjoyed jamming in an amazing drum circle.

How were we able to create such a weekend, with a band of four out-of-town performers/educators, including a guest rabbi? In part, because Dale Vine, of blessed memory, connected deeply to Temple Beth Torah as his spiritual home and family. He had experienced years of illness prior to joining the temple, and when he passed away in August, 2022, he left a monetary "Legacy Gift" to Temple Beth Torah. He loved Jewish music in general, and the YedidYAH band in particular. So, the TBT Board thought this educational/musical weekend would be a good way to honor his memory and create lasting memories for the temple. Whenever children and adults have a great time together, it leaves a lasting impression.

And the Legacy spirit doesn't stop with a weekend program. That same week in March, a new memorial board was mounted in the sanctuary, dedicated in honor of the Kaufman family, thanks to funds left by past president Jeff Kaufman when he sadly passed away in May 2023. The end of March also brought us a "legacy" bar mitzvah. 13-year-old Adam Grayson, who currently lives with his family in the DC area, chose to have his bar mitzvah at Temple Beth Torah because this is where his grandmother, Ellen Grayson, is a member, and his great grandparents, Bernard and Hanna Lewis were longtime members. Bernard used to bring Adam's mother and father, Matt and Marina Grayson, to TBT for High Holidays. Adam's "Legacy Bar Mitzvah" is another link of blending generation to generation (L'Dor VaDor).

As I inch closer to thirty years with TBT (2027 will be my 30th Rosh Hashana), I think about the many legacies that have been created here. We have students who have become doctors, scientists, engineers, educators, therapists and military personnel. We have adults who have learned about leadership from dedicated volunteerism. We have helped countless Jewish people, geographically removed from the heart of the Jewish community, strengthen their Jewish learning and Jewish identifies. We have helped over two dozen people find their path to choose Judaism through formal conversion, and had others reaffirm their faith with an adult bar or bat mitzvah or renewal of wedding vows.

A legacy is all about making a difference for the future. About 40 Temple Beth Torah members have signed up with our Legacy program by pledging a portion of their future estate to the temple. Jeff Kaufman and Dale Vine were kind enough to have the foresight to formalize their gifts ahead of time to prevent any complications for their surviving loved ones. If you have made this kind of pledge, but not yet formalized it, now is a good time. If you might still consider putting TBT in your plans to help ensure our future, let us know, and we'll help you facilitate it. We have received much guidance from the Houston Jewish Community Foundation regarding these kinds of gifts.

Whether your legacy is about financial support for the future, or spiritual participation in the present, each one of you makes a difference. It begins with our collective spirit that makes this community special.

L'shalom,

Rabbi Dan Gordon

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Like many of you, I am still reminiscing about the wonderful Purim weekend we had recently. Thanks to generous sponsorship, four members of the YedidYAH family band came from California to help create an unforgettable Purim. Our hearts were dancing, from the Friday night Shabbat/Purim service, complete with TBT children acting out the Book of Esther, to a lively concert on Sunday that has so many people singing and dancing together. Perhaps my own favorite time came on Saturday. With the help of Aaron Yedidia, people of all ages made their own drums out of tin cans, and then Aaron led us all in a most unique drum circle. Children and adults blended their creativity and excitement. The result, at first, was a great cacophony of noise...but then, magic happened. The individual pounding was transformed into cohesive music. My favorite parts of the whole weekend included our own members' contributions: Lia Pilman quickly learned Jewish songs from one of the teenagers from the band, and Bruce Pollard honored us with his own spirited guitar and song leading.

Aaron's leadership of the drum circle felt like a community coming together. At first, everyone was just having fun making noise. Then, Aaron directed individuals to create their own rhythms, with the rest of the group following by mimicking what they heard. Everyone had to listen closely to find the rhythm, and then it began again with a different leader. It was a great example of how members of a community can take turns assuming leadership roles, and when we listen to each other, teamwork can make for a beautiful outcome.

Over forty people attended each of the three events, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, showing excitement for community involvement. These are the kind of activities, bringing members together, playing, learning, leading and listening, that create community. I look forward to more of these in the future.

L'shalom,

Mike Miller - TBT President

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL HAPPENINGS - by Carrie Keith - Principal

We had an amazing Purim weekend in March with the Yedidiah Family Band! We celebrated Shabbat and students acted out the Purim story. Drum making and playing was fantastic. Lots of delicious food- thank you, Wes Goble! The kids played games AND we put together over 20 bags of bean soup ingredients for HAAM as a mitzvah project. The people at HAAM were so appreciative. They said that the families coming to HAAM always choose these first!

April will be another exciting and busy month at TBT. The Religious School will have our model Passover Seder on April 14. The students will be preparing all the traditional foods, setting the tables, and participating in the Seder with Rabbi Dan. Parents are welcomed to help with all the preparations and enjoy the Seder with their children.

The students are looking forward to celebrating with Celeb Brawn as he becomes a Bar Mitzvah this month. Then we all get to enjoy celebrating Passover starting on April 22.

We have just a few Sundays left in the year. Our final class will be on May 19th. Watch for emails for details about the end of year program.

Yahrtzeit Memorial Plaques

The minimum donation for one memorial plaque to be placed on the wall in the sanctuary remains $300. However, those purchasing two plaques at the same time can do so for $500, a savings of $100. It usually takes at least a month for a plaque to be engraved and sent back to the temple. There are three memorial boards in the sanctuary, and there are very few spaces left. Thanks to the generosity of the Kaufman family, a new memorial board has been ordered, and will be installed sometime soon, hopefully. You may consult with the rabbi for the Hebrew name and date by emailing Rabbi Dan Gordon at rabbi@tbthumble.org Checks must be sent to TBT prior to the plaque being ordered.

ONEG INFORMATION

Thank you to everyone who has provided an Oneg recently. They have been delicious and a highlight to every Shabbat. Thank you also to those who have sponsored an Oneg with your generous donations. Preparing an Oneg is a wonderful way to celebrate a special event. It is also a way to commemorate a Yahrzeit for a loved one. If you would like to do an Oneg, please leave a message for Shari Ellesworth at 281-446-5611, or email admin@tbthumble.org

Torah Portions for April 2024

Summarized by Rabbi Dan Gordon

April 5-6, 2024

Shemini, Leviticus 9:1-11:47

Immediately after their seven days of inauguration into the priesthood, Aaron and his sons begin to serve in their new capacity. The two elder sons, Nadav and Avihu, offer “a strange fire before G-d, which He commanded them not.” Because of this strange fire, the two are consumed by the fire and die. Aaron remains silent. There is much discussion about why they died, and some commentaries claim the sons went beyond their roles as priests. This Torah portion also contains the laws regarding kashrut, and which animals are permitted and forbidden to be eaten.

April 12-13, 2024

Tazria, Leviticus 12:1-13:59

Tazria begins with laws of ritual impurity following childbirth, and a reminder that male children be circumcised after their eighth day of birth. It goes on to discuss a variety of skin afflictions. It becomes the duties of the priests to determine and diagnose periods of isolation, and how both minor and major skin afflictions are to be handled. When a person is afflicted, there are particular rituals the priest employs to help them regain ritual purity and return to the camp. Discussions of this Torah portion can help us relate to the importance of purity, as well as how to regain a pure state when we are “infected” by physical, spiritual or emotional “intruders.”

April 19-20, 2024

Metzarah, Leviticus 14:1-15:33

continues the discussion of purity, moving from the cleanliness and purity of the body to purifying our homes. We rid our homes of the hamatz –undesirable products that are forbidden on Pesach. Spiritually, it can be a way of getting rid of the “schmutz” of our lives. The Exodus is about starting over as a people. Each year, when we purify our homes, we prepare to start over once again.

April 26-27, 2024

Special Reading for Shabbat during Passover
Exodus 33:12-34:26 and Numbers 28:19-25

In the middle of Pesach, the Torah reading relates to a new beginning after the Israelites built a “Golden Calf” as an idol, and Moses, in anger, smashed the tablets of the Ten Commandments. G-d instructs Moses to construct new tablets to reconnect and help heal the relationship between Israelites, G-d and the Law. We are reminded of the importance of Shabbat and given instructions for the observance of Passover. The week of eating matzah is always in springtime, signifying annual rebirth and reconnections. Poignantly connected to the Golden Calf, this reading is a reminder that, even after making drastic mistakes, we have opportunities to cleanse ourselves and begin again.

KROGER card to support TBT.

Kroger has upgraded their Community Rewards system and as a result TBT has a new account number- VE980. Please use this new number when linking your Kroger card to TBT so we can receive a percentage of your Kroger purchases. It's an easy way to help TBT earn some money. While the previous number will continue to be associated with our organization, it will not be visible to members when enrolling. New members can enroll by searching for either VE980 or Temple Beth Torah. If you are a Kroger shopper, please link your Kroger card to TBT at no cost to you.

For HAAM (Humble Area Assistance Ministries)

Our local partner, HAAM, works hard to keep the pantry stocked to help those in need. As we open our hearts to our own families, let us also remember others. You can bring non-perishable food donations to the temple, and we will arrange to get it to HAAM. Needed items include canned beans, canned fruit (low sugar), canned chicken and tuna and canned vegetables (low sodium). Pastas, sauces, breakfast cereals, mac and cheese and baby food. Hygiene items are also needed, like toilet paper, paper towels, toothbrushes, toothpaste, razors, soap, shampoo, and conditioner. This kind of tzedakah helps people hold onto dignity while receiving loving and necessary gifts. Thank you.
